

GET PAID TO TRAIN

Join our Mobile Construction Training Program

The Florida Department of Transportation (FDOT) has launched a paid Mobile Construction Training Program with locations around the state. Upon completion, participants will gain access to a variety of full-time opportunities.

After an initial four-week classroom and simulation training, participants will take part in an additional two-week training period where they can choose to either earn a commercial driver's license (CDL) Class-B or go right to on-the-job training.

Whether you're new to construction or are looking for a career change, this program prepares you to make an immediate impact. Accelerate your career with the Florida Department of Transportation.
